Why are you asked to provide additional information?

As of October 28, 2013, all financial institutions in the United States are required to comply with certain regulations when initiating international wire transfers. In order to provide a timely and efficient service to our members, Space Coast Credit Union recommends obtaining the additional information that is provided below.

All international wires require different numbers such as SWIFT Bank Identifier Code (SWIFT - BIC), International Routing Code (IRC), International Bank Account Number (IBAN), and Mexico CLABE Account Number depending on the receiving foreign country. These numbers are used as the identifiers that uniquely distinguish the beneficiary accounts, the receiving financial institutions and countries.

1. SWIFT Bank Identifier Code (SWIFT - BIC): The 8 or 11 - character SWIFT BIC is a unique identifier of a specific bank. The code contains alpha numeric characters and should be obtained from the beneficiary. All foreign countries except Australia, Canada, Fiji, Guam, Puerto Rico, and United Kingdom require SWIFT BIC for international wire transfers.
2. International Bank Account Number (IBAN): The purpose of the IBAN is to identify bank accounts specifically.

CAUTION: Only the bank servicing an account can provide the correct IBAN of that particular account. The IBAN must be obtained from the beneficiary.

The following countries require the IBAN for wire transfers:

Albania	Costa Rica	Greece	Monaco	Togo

To avoid delays on the processing of your outgoing international wires and assess additional fees, please ensure that all required information is obtained from the beneficiary. If the beneficiary does not have the needed information, please have the beneficiary contact their bank to obtain the required information.

In addition, when sending your wire in foreign currency, please ensure that the beneficiary’s account accepts the designated foreign currency to prevent the wire being returned by the beneficiary bank.

Cancellation: You can cancel for a full refund within 30 minutes of payment, unless the funds are picked up or deposited. Otherwise, you will be responsible for all fees, charges, penalties, and other losses caused by modification or cancellation of any wires after the 30-minute waiting period.

For Incoming International Wires Only: Please provide the following information to the remitter:

- SCCU ABA Number 263177903
- Your account information
- Your name and contact information

If you have any questions regarding your wire service, please call SCCU Member Service Center at (321) 752-2222.
